

TAF MEMBERSHIP 2025/26

SUPPORTED BY GOVERNMENT

Welcome from the TAF Chair

Richard Smith

TAF Chair &
Managing Director of the RHA

chair@taforum.org

“As the Chair of the Trade Association Forum, my mission is to help TAF continue to grow and develop its offer for members and ensure myself and other members of the board are supporting members to build professional networks, discuss common challenges and promote best practice.

I hope you join the TAF community, and look forward to potentially meeting you over the coming year and working with you to ensure that TAF continues to provide the best possible support to our members, and can act as a champion for our sector.”

About TAF

TAF is the UK's 'association of associations', a community of 180 trade associations encouraging the development and sharing of best practice among UK trade associations and promoting the role of effective trade associations to government, industry and the wider public.

We focus specifically on trade associations, not on the broader membership community, and that focus helps define everything we do. Our 180 association members in turn represent close to 190,000 UK businesses, making TAF one of the largest representative bodies in the country.

Whether helping associations share best practice, or helping our members help their members transition to net zero, TAF is at the heart of the UK association community and working every day to help support our sector. Thank you for being part of our community!

What TAF does

TAF is run by associations, for associations, with a focus on helping our members deliver more for their members. We support our members by providing:

Community

We help members connect with each other to network, learn and share, via regular in-person events, an online community and special interest groups.

Insights

We provide access to resources, industry benchmarking, events and guidance to help our members improve, address common challenges and respond to the changing external environment.

Services

We provide access to services and deals via a range of partners to help our members save money and deliver more for their members.

Joining the TAF Community

Like all associations, we are dependent on the involvement and support of our members, so please do get involved! There are plenty of ways to take part in our community:

EVENTS AND NETWORKING

We run free events for members throughout the year and offer preferential pricing to paid-for events

ONLINE COMMUNITY

Mobile app and web forums to build your network, ask questions to your peers and crowdsource information from the UK's only network of trade association professionals

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Mobile app and web forums to build your network, ask questions to your peers and crowdsource information from the UK's only network of trade association professionals

MEMBER-TO-MEMBER

We facilitate member-to-member relationships to help solve common challenges by pairing people with experience to help those approaching something for the first time.

TAF Online

Whilst a lot of our community offer revolves around our face to face and online events, there's also a lot you can do online via our website and on our online community.

TAF Website

The TAF website has a member only section where you can access member-only content, videos of past webinars, our resource library and access all of your member benefits. Once logged in you will also be able to join our online community and book in a call with the TAF team whenever suits.

Association Directory

Our trade association directory is the go-to place to find out about associations in the UK and used by Government, the media and the public to find out more about the association sector.

Online Community

Our online community is a closed forum where members can communicate, coordinate and explore ways of working with one another. Looking for a supplier recommendation? Got a question about member marketing or governance? This is the place for you!

You can register for your individual TAF account through the TAF website using the following link:

Events

Events have always been a core part of the TAF offer - we run a huge number of in-person and online events each year, from webinars to networking and much more! Alongside our regular events programme we also run two set-piece events each year - our annual conference and the UK Trade Associations Awards.

Trade Association Awards - February

The awards are one of the highlights of the calendar and an opportunity to recognise the incredible work that goes on in the UK association sector. Find out more here -

<https://tafawards.org>

Best Practice Exchange Conference - Autumn

Our annual conference is a chance for associations to come together and learn from each other, alongside expert speakers and suppliers to the sector -

TAF Awards - February 2024

Best Practice Exchange - September 2023

Special Interest Groups

TAF membership is access to all employees of a member association, and we welcome people from all levels to join our community. We are also developing our Special Interest Groups to bring together specific specialisms within our community to foster relationships, learning opportunities and career development. The Groups are member-led and meet regularly with support from the TAF Secretariat.

We launched our first SIG, PUBCOM, in 2023 focused on public affairs and communications and the group has met regularly and brought in a range of high profile speakers. Plans for 2025/26 include launching new SIGs around member engagement/marketing and events.

TAF PUBCOM

Our special interest group bringing together public affairs and comms people from associations, find out more here - <https://www.taforum.org/news/taf-communications-forum-sign-up/>

The TAF logo is displayed in a bold, dark blue, sans-serif font. The letters 'T', 'A', and 'F' are closely spaced, with the 'A' being slightly taller than the 'T' and 'F'. The logo is positioned to the right of the main text block.

Championing associations

Part of our role for the association community is to shout about the importance of associations to Government, the media, the general public and just about anyone else who will listen! We do this via our on-going relationship with the UK's Department of Business and Trade and by facilitating relationships between members and key stakeholders.

Over the past year this work has included offering opportunities to engage with Government reviews, feeding into the Labour Party's review around business engagement to emphasise the role of associations and more.

We also use our channels and our voice to champion the role of associations more broadly, check out our animation on the value of associations to the UK economy and feel free to download and use!
